

Red-chested Cuckoo Cuculus solitarius: monthly distribution within Tanzania

Is this an accurate reflection of the distribution of this species or an indication of detectability during the rains when this bird is calling and therefore easy to find ?